

ArtSeed Art-A-Thon

Ways you can participate:

Invite an Art World Luminary Friend to come observe, speak, pose for drawings, or read/sign/sell books.

Be a Lead Artist who signs up to lead one hour-long workshop on an artistic field of your expertise. We are seeking a wide variety of instructors (both traditional and experimental, well-known and up-and-coming) and are open to your ideas for art subjects and skills to teach. Each hour-long session will have a maximum of 40 students and should be accessible to artists of all ages and abilities. As budget permits, supplies may be reimbursed.

Be an Art-a-thoner: Sign up to test your artistic endurance and creative stamina while raising money for a good cause. Collect pledges from friends and family to support you through this artistic challenge. Funds raised support ArtSeed's Studio Apprenticeship program based in Bayview Hunters Point which includes collaborative projects and sustained partnerships between a professional artist and a child.

Be a Volunteer: There are many ways to help, starting now. Please contact us to join the fun!

Be a Spectator/Cheerleader, and/or make a Pledge or Donation: Mail a check; phone, fax or email us with your card info; bring these in person to the event, or make a gift through our website at: www.artseed.org.

How to Register: Contact Allison, Event Coordinator, by sending an email with "Register Me" as the subject line to allison.artseed@gmail.com with your name, mailing address, telephone number, email address, and your preferred role(s): Art-a-thon-er, Lead Artist (please describe subject) or Volunteer.
