ABOUT

Practitioners' Voice CA (PVCA) is a recent grantmaking effort seeking to center the expertise of early learning practitioners in the policy process in California. We believe practitioners are experts and that policies should be designed with them, not for them.

As part of PVCA's commitment to "flip the script" and center the expertise of early learning practitioners in the policy process in California, we are sharing all consenting applicants' information with peer funders. In the following pages, you will find a short profile on each of these groups, including contact information, a brief description or their mission statement, and key characteristics about their leadership and the populations they serve. We've also noted whether they were selected as a PVCA Grantee.

Please note: This directory will not be updated after March 31, 2023.

PVCA is managed by The Tides Foundation in coordination with the Heising-Simons Foundation. It is funded by the Heising-Simons Foundation, Tipping Point Community Foundation, Blue Shield of California Foundation, and California Community Foundation, and the Silicon Valley Community Foundation.

For more information about PVCA, visit pvca.submittable.com. For questions about this directory, please contact the PVCA team at Tides at pvca@tides.org. For more information about Tides and our services, please visit Tides.org.
